

*"Nino Guarnacci helping customers to re-draw their processes in a new innovative and sustainable way.
Leading the Public Sector Solution Engineering team for Italy, with passion day by day give his contribute to redraw the rules on how Citizens and Public Employees interact and collaborate, reducing the distance between users and processes with a democratic and sustainable approach to the digitisation of public administration, public transportation and healthcare services.*

# Professor in several professional Masters for some of the most prestigious Italian Universities: Luiss Business School, Sole24 Business School, La Sapienza, Federico II.

# Author of several books and articles related to the business world and digitalisation, most recently "La Fabbrica connessa" published by Guerini.

# Creator of several Mobile Applications, the latest released "Opinione": A combination of News, Artificial Intelligence and an Advanced User Experience, available on all stores.

# Passionate about Photography and the Aurora Borealis, co-founder of the first group of Italian Aurora Hunters, organiser of North Pole expeditions for enthusiasts of the genre."